BURGLARY SUSPECT ARRESTED

On April 19, 2005, at approximately 11:34 am, Hampton police officers were dispatched to a burglary in progress in the 2300 block of Jamestown Avenue. An observant neighbor witnessed three individuals breaking into the side door of a neighbor's home. The witness telephoned police to advise them of the situation. When one of the officers arrived on the scene, three suspects fled from the residence on foot. The officer gave chase and captured one of the suspects Ernest Don Juan Fenner, a 24-year-old Hampton man who resides in the 1300 block of Buckroe Avenue.

Fenner is charged with breaking and entering and grand larceny. The suspects stole jewelry and money from the residence. Fenner is in the custody of the Hampton City Jail.

Corporal James West will receive questions about this release at 757-727-6608.
